

REPORTING FROM

ATLANTA

Your news update just for Atlanta!

Spring may be on its way, but college decisions already have high school students planning for fall.

This joyous time can be disheartening for those whose academic and leadership potential may be overlooked by traditional selection processes. Now, thanks to a groundbreaking partnership between SU and the Posse Foundation, 10 Posse Scholars from the Atlanta area are getting the chance to pursue their academic dreams!

The Posse Foundation identifies, recruits, and trains these unconventional young leaders and sends them in multicultural teams—Posses—to partner schools like SU.

“The Posse Scholarship literally changed my life,” says Elmer Moreno '16, a current SU Posse Scholar whose circumstances deemed him ineligible for most financial aid options.

Read more about the partnership.

See SU's Carl Schramm May 2!

Acclaimed entrepreneurship expert and SU professor Carl J. Schramm, Ph.D., J.D., is coming to Atlanta! Join Schramm for a keynote focusing on the role of entrepreneurship in growing the Save the date!

Join us May 2 as SU's Carl Schramm discusses the role of entrepreneurship in growing the economy.

Atlanta Alums

Tanya Forrest Hall '93

economy, followed by a panel discussion highlighting successes and opportunities in metro Atlanta.

Sponsored by the Metro Atlanta Chamber and Paul Hastings LLP. Get event details.

Get all the latest news...

Read about another successful Atlanta alum, Joe Trino '70, and get more Atlanta news on atlanta.syr.edu.

Have you seen The Campaign for Syracuse University final report? Check it out at campaign.syr.edu!

Questions?

Want to know about an event or how to get involved? Contact Karen Spear at ksspear@syr.edu or 315.443.2410.

credits SU for putting her on the right career path.

Read more

Support SU students of today and tomorrow...

Make a gift

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY | ATLANTA

820 Comstock Avenue, Syracuse, New York, 13244-5040