

REPORTING FROM

ATLANTA

ATLANTA.SYR.EDU

Issue 10 | July 2, 2015

Special feature

Discovering the best of Atlanta

It was an exciting spring for Syracuse University in Atlanta, as alumni and friends hosted the city's inaugural immersion program for 14 students from the College of Arts and Sciences. Held May 12-15, the trip combined a variety of cultural activities with visits to prominent Atlanta-based companies—giving students a true sense of the benefits to living and working in Atlanta, and the region's strong Orange ties. See photos from an amazing trip, and watch our highlight video!

Join us!

Calling all 2015 SU grads!

Wednesday, July 22, 2015

6:30–8:30 p.m.

Jackson Spaulding

1100 Peachtree Street, 18th Floor, Atlanta

This popular event is expanding to a series targeting Syracuse alumni of all ages and covering a range of topics throughout the year. The first SUccess in the City event is especially designed for Class of 2015 graduates, serving as their first official alumni gathering. Register now!

In the News

SU took a chance on him, and he's paying it forward

Benjamin Ordover '53 (pictured with his wife and grandson) gained the foundation for a stellar marketing career when Syracuse University took a chance on him more than 60 years ago. For that reason, Ordover is one of the University's most devoted supporters—donating to SU every year since his graduation. Read more.

Dean Branham visits Atlanta

On April 9, the Syracuse University Alumni Club of Atlanta hosted a spirited discussion featuring Lorraine Branham, dean of Syracuse's Newhouse School, who spoke about freedom of the press and freedom of speech in today's world. The event was held at Georgia Pacific Auditorium and included a panel discussion with other media industry leaders. See photos.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY | ATLANTA

820 Comstock Avenue, Syracuse, New York, 13244-5040