

REPORTING FROM

ATLANTA

ATLANTA.SYR.EDU

Issue 08 | December 15, 2014

Special feature

New SUACOA president

At its recent meeting, the Syracuse University Alumni Club of Atlanta (SUACOA) elected a new slate of officers for 2014-15, with Curt Coulombe '92, certified financial planner at Elliott & Associates Wealth Advisors, Inc., to serve as board president. Meet all the SUACOA officers, and read fun facts about them.

Join us!

Time to cheer for Orange!

Syracuse Basketball Game Watch Events
Hudson Grille

6317 Roswell Road, Sandy Springs

Why stay at home when you can watch basketball with fellow Orange fans? Join the Alumni Club of Atlanta at Hudson Grille in Sandy Springs for televised game watches throughout the basketball season. Enjoy great food and company, and cheer for everyone's favorite team! Get details.

In the News

Share your Syracuse spirit!

We're sending holiday cheer to our Syracuse alumni and friends in Atlanta and around the world! Now it's your turn—visit spirit.syr.edu to create your spirit message, see what others are saying, and browse our gallery of proud Syracuse moments!

Chancellor Syverud visits Atlanta

On November 19, 2014, more than 100 Atlanta alumni, parents, prospective students, and friends gathered at the Center for Civil and Human Rights for a reception with Chancellor Kent Syverud. See photos of the event, where the Chancellor shared his vision for Syracuse University and Fast Forward Syracuse, the University's new strategic initiative.

The Renaissance in Atlanta

The Renaissance came to life at the High Museum of Art when the exhibition "Make A Joyful Noise": Renaissance Art and Music from Florence Cathedral opened in October. Atlanta alumni and friends enjoyed a private reception and exclusive preview of the exhibition, featuring remarks by Gary Radke, Dean's Professor of the Humanities and director of the Graduate Program in Renaissance Art at Syracuse's College of Arts and Sciences. See photos.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY | ATLANTA

820 Comstock Avenue, Syracuse, New York, 13244-5040